Facts You May Not Already Know

- If your car is turned on but not in motion for over 3 minutes, that is called idling and it is illegal in New Jersey.
- Fumes from cars contain fine particles commonly called “soot” that may trigger or worsen asthma symptoms.
- Only 10 seconds of idling uses more fuel than turning the engine on and off.
- Our center is working to become asthma friendly and to keep your child healthy.

JOIN US and MAKE A PLEDGE today to Stop Idling!

Please sign the NO IDLING PLEDGE below to acknowledge that you received no idling information.

For More Information, Visit www.StopTheSoot.org
Or Call 609-292-7953

Idling is Bad for Lungs